

TANKS FOR EVERYTHING LIMITED

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. BOOKING.

By booking your activity(s) you will be deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions. Tanks For Everything Limited reserves the right to reschedule the timings, dates or location of any activity(s).

Tanks For Everything Limited will give as much notice as possible but with conditions or circumstances beyond the control of Tanks For Everything Limited this may be at short notice. In the event of any activity(s) being rescheduled Tanks For Everything Limited's liability is limited to the re-booking of the activity(s) for a different date. Tanks For Everything Limited is unable to reimburse travel or other incidental expenses incurred by you in attending any activity(s) which is (are) rescheduled, we recommend that you contact Tanks For Everything Limited before making any special travel arrangements.

Gift vouchers are non-refundable and are valid for a maximum of 6 months from the date of purchase.

2. THIRD PARTY BOOKINGS.

(Any booking not purchased directly from Tanks For Everything Limited.)

Tanks For Everything Limited assumes liability to provide the goods or services purchased from a third party when payment has been received from the third party. Tanks For Everything Limited does not assume liability to provide the goods or services purchased from a third party at the time of booking.

3. CANCELLATION OR NO SHOW.

Once an activity(s) is booked for a specific date there will be cancellation charges of 20% of the purchase price if the customer attending cancels or reschedules with less than 14 days notice. Cancellation on the day or customer(s) not showing up to participate in the activity(s) on the specified date will incur charges equal to the purchase price.

4. HEALTH.

The customer is required to notify Tanks For Everything Limited at the time of booking of any relevant medical conditions that might affect their ability to participate in the activity(s), or be affected by participating in the activity(s). The customer should check with their GP if necessary, customers who have pre-existing medical condition(s) participate at their own risk.

5. PARTICIPATION.

People who are of very tall or very short stature or who are excessively large may not be able to drive some of our vehicles. This is due to access and / or vision problems. You must also have enough strength to be able to lower and raise yourself into and out of some of the vehicles. Please contact us and we can advise you further. People must at all times pay attention to and obey our instructors. Anyone not doing this or acting in a manner likely to endanger themselves or others will be asked to leave the site without refund. If in the sole discretion of Tanks For Everything Limited the customer is unfit or unable to participate safely in all or any part of the activity(s) Tanks For Everything Limited reserves the right to withdraw the customer from the course on the grounds of the customers own safety and the safety of others. In these circumstances the customer is not entitled to a refund.

Any customer under the influence of drink or drugs will be immediately asked to leave the site without refund.

Customers must stay in the designated area(s).

Children must be supervised at all times by a responsible adult.

You must not bring alcohol, pets, or firearms onto the Tanks For Everything Limited site.

You must not bring matches, lighters or lit cigarettes onto the Tanks For Everything Limited site – it is strictly a no smoking area.

We take every care with regard to our customers' welfare however each driver will be required to sign a form on the day agreeing to Conditions of use. Customers must read, understand and sign the Conditions of use, prior to participation in the activity(s).

If a customer has an accident or sustains any injuries whilst attending any activities or events supplied by Tanks For Everything Limited, the customer or a representative of the customer must fill out and sign the accident book.

6. PERSONAL INJURY, LOSS OR DAMAGE.

(a) Customers participate in all activities at their own risk and Tanks For Everything Limited shall have no liability of any nature for:

(a) Any personal injury

(b) Any loss or damage to clothing or other property whether caused by negligence, theft or any action or inaction of Tanks For Everything Limited or any of its employees, customers or invitees.

(b) If for any reason the exclusion of liability in clause 6(a) is ineffective, Tanks for Everything Limited's liability shall be limited to the cost of the customer's ticket.

(c) Customers should dress appropriately for the weather conditions on the day, and must expect to get wet, dirty, muddy and/or dusty. Sturdy footwear should be worn. All military vehicles have sharp edges and interesting access methods, so customers need to follow instructions and accept the associated risks.

7 ACTIVITY(S).

The description of each activity is correct at the time of going to press, however Tanks For Everything Limited reserve the right to make changes to the activity without notice.

Allowances need to be made for the age and service requirements of our vehicles – they can break down and Tanks For Everything Limited reserves the right to substitute vehicles should the need arise.

In order to ensure everyone gets the most out of their experiences, you may have to wait your turn for a vehicle and instructor to be available.